

Panel Glides

Perfect for doors, windows or as room dividers

Enjoy the new era of vertical operating window and door coverings.

Throw away those old verticals and look at panel glides. Stylish and sleek these blinds retract side to side or centre split and are perfect for doors and wide spaces of glass.

Look at a huge range of fabrics and textures and even include battens for that roman blind look. These blinds are able to compliment any other window covering ie roller and roman blinds as you are able to convey the same fabric through the different design styles.
